

To the Editor:

As long-time Dublin residents, we have a strong interest in the future of Dublin and encourage our fellow residents to vote for Chris Amorose Grooms for Dublin City Council.

We have known Chris for 30 years and believe that she is an extraordinary person who will respectfully consider all suggestions and ideas from Dublin residents. She comes from a civic-minded family that has contributed so much - and still actively works for the betterment of Dublin. Chris feels compelled to run for Dublin City Council and to work to make sure community growth is managed in a fiscally responsible way.

Chris served for nearly eight years on the Dublin Planning and Zoning Commission – with six of those years as chairperson.

Chris is the “real deal.” She is a leader who is hardworking, gutsy and fair. Her planning and zoning experience combined with her devotion to the Dublin community will make Chris an excellent Dublin City Council representative.

Please join us in supporting Chris Amorose Grooms with your vote on November 3.
